

The Society of the Founders of Norwich, Connecticut acts:

- To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the Founders and Original Settlers of Norwich.
- To encourage the publication and study of the history of Norwich.
- To acquire and preserve documents, relics, buildings, real estate and records relating to the history of Norwich.

The Leffingwell House Museum is owned and operated by the Society of the Founders of Norwich and is considered one of the finest restored examples of New England's Colonial Architecture. Displayed within its walls are wonderful examples of early Norwich silversmiths and clock makers. It is a living museum where visitors can experience 18th century civilian life as they walk through its' rooms and feel a connection to those who founded this country.

Museum is open by appointment and on Saturdays Noon – 4 PM May – September

Fruit Pie Making

Learn to make a delicious & flaky pie crust and unforgettable pie with Pastry Chef Joyce Brewster. Be able to choose the best apples for your homemade pie and what other pie fillings you can use to make the most delicious pies for family and friends!

Class size limited to 6. No Materials Fee.

Tattering Lace Making

Cathy Levin learned the fiber art of “Tattering” from the ladies of the thread mill.

Tattering is a variation of “Filet Crochet or picture lace”. A handmade design is worked by looping and knotting thread by hand shuttle, in a loose weave fabric.

Workshop participants will make their own shuttle and complete a small “picture lace” project.
Class size limited to 6 No Materials Fee

Bobbin Lace Making

Member of the New England Lace Group, Clare Settle, will teach the elegant craft of making Bobbin Lace.

Bobbin lace (pillow lace) takes its name from the way it is made: on a firm pillow to which a pricked-out pattern is tacked and each twist or cross of the bobbins is held in place by a pin.

Workshop participants will practice the craft and make a piece of lace to take home.
Class size limited to 6. No materials Fee.

Splint Seat Weaving

Learn the art of creating a comfortable splint seat from Joe Doran.

Participants should bring a ladder back chair with the old seat removed. The splint material for an average size chair is available. Participants should bring a pair of scissors, a few clothespins, a rag and a small container for water.
Materials Fee: $10.00 payable to instructor

Class size limited to 6.

18th Century Firearms

Using his extensive collection Tom Brown will lead participants by discussion, story and demonstration through 18th century military, civilian and trade firearms.

Bring your questions and experiences.

Unlimited class size so bring your friends! No materials Fee.
