The Leffingwell House Museum invites all to see the

Ada Richards Chase

Books of Gravestones

as they were presented at the Annual Meeting of the Society of the Founders of Norwich June 9, 1932.

It's a rare look at gravestones from Norwich, and a variety of other Connecticut towns such as Colchester, Canterbury, Wethersfield, Hartford and Cromwell among others. "All of the photographs show the stones before the ravages of vandals, deterioration, weather and pollution of the last seventy-seven years." Said Beryl Fishbone Volunteer Program Manager for the Society of the Founders of Norwich.

The display will remain in the South Parlor of the Leffingwell House Museum through September 2009 along with copies for review of
